Motion Passes to Approve August 2007 Minutes.

Principal's Report:

Joe announced a new Arts Attack program brought to Dailard. Each teacher will get their own packet, cost was $3.00 per student, PTF paid $850 for this start-up.

Discussion regarding an overflow teacher, which would allow lower class size at upper grades and/or PE teacher. There are not enough finances to fund both. Discussed the need for more fund raising.

DADS Group may begin with some fund raising. Already selling DADS T-shirts and planning a free event – Camping at Dailard.

Technology:

Gary Letchinger reported the Technology Committee held their first meeting and discussed updating the website for content.

Joe mentioned that the District will be fixing the network infrastructure for the connectivity.

Treasurer:

Beth Hansel mentioned that she will be purchasing director's insurance (CHUB) which covers $1 million liability. She received a quote for $750 for the year.

Other Business:

- Stacy Carillo representing the 1st grade teachers, requested $500 for carpet for Ms. Lakin and Ms. Abel's classes. Discussion on budget held. No funds granted.
- Stacy also requested funds to pay for two field trips, which involve having groups present at Dailard – no need for busses and a .Birch Aquarium hands on full day program.

Motion passed to allocate $840 to use Grade Level Grants for these field trips which will fund all five 1st grade classes.

Discussion had and Motion Passed via email to allocate a $400 grant to the 2nd for the Natural History Museum to present a hands-on science program.

The November Board Meeting has been canceled.
